

Heritage Boiler Association Alberta

Email: registrar@hbaa.ca

Website: <http://www.hbaa.ca>

Historic Boiler Training Course Registration Form

The Heritage Boiler Association Alberta (HBAA) has received approval from the Alberta Boilers Safety Association (ABSA) for the training course that was developed for operating historic boilers in Alberta. Successful completion of this course is now mandated as part of the process to obtaining a Special Steam – Powered Traction Engine Operator Certificate of Competency from ABSA.

Date: October 14,15 / 2017

Duration: 2 days, 9 am to 5 pm

Location: South Peace Centennial Museum, Beaverlodge, Alberta

Cost: $180 (Paid in advance)

Your Information (please print)

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City / Province / Code: _____

Phone / Cell: _____

Email: _____

HBAA Membership: Non-member Member # _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Notes:

1. The course manual is included in the registration fee.
2. A written examination will be conducted. You must obtain a passing grade to be considered to have completed the course.
3. Full details of the Special Steam – Powered Traction Engine Operator Certificate of Competency can be found at <http://www.absa.ca/ECprogram/PowerEngineering/SpecialSteamOperator.aspx>.
4. Your contact information will only be used for information and updates related to this course.

Please mail or deliver this completed form, along with a cheque or money order for $180 (no GST) payable to the Heritage Boiler Association Alberta (do not send cash in the mail) to:

South Peace Centennial Museum – HBAA Course Registration
Beaverlodge, AB
T0H 0C0

If you scan a copy of your completed form and email it to registrar@hbaa.ca, we can confirm your registration sooner. You must still mail in the form along with your payment to complete your registration.